CALL FOR WORKSHOP PROPOSALS

Update 8/5/20

This document has been updated with a 2 week extended deadline. Submissions should now also detail how the workshop might be able to be run remotely in the event that is required.

Proposals for workshops are short papers (4 pages including references, in Springer LNCS format: <http://www.springer.com/computer/lncs?SGWID=0-164-6-793341-0>) that are not anonymized. Workshops may vary in length, from half a day to a full day, and may vary considerably in format. Interdisciplinary proposals are particularly encouraged.

Successful proposals require at least one workshop organizer to register for ICIDS 2020 and to attend to run the workshop. Workshop attendees will also need to register for ICIDS 2020 in order to attend.

Proposals should include:

- A brief description of the workshop (maximum two pages), outlining:
 - Format
 - Goals
 - Topic
 - Expected outcomes
- A proposed schedule and a short draft of the call for participation.
- The names, affiliations, and email addresses of the proposed organizing committee. This committee should consist of two to four people recognized in the area.
- The primary contact for the organizing committee.
- If possible, a list of tentatively confirmed attendees.
- A proposal for how the workshop might be run remotely/virtually in the event the event requires this due to the on going COVID19 crisis.

Workshop proposals must be submitted via email icidsworkshops2020@gmail.com by ~~May 8th~~ May 22nd. Your email should outline any accommodations that you will need to run your workshop at the conference (e.g., requirements pertaining to space, physical setup, technology, etc.). The workshops will be held on November 3rd.
